

CHARDONNAY

The most successful white grape of the classic varieties, Chardonnay is the most popular wine produced in California. This has resulted in a wine available in a huge array of styles. From the big fruit varieties, to the more citrusy versions of the hotter climates, the possibilities are endless. The winemaker also has a profound effect with his or her choices of fermentation technique and wood aging. You'll find many of California's premier Chardonnay producers on our list. From the ever popular Chateau St. Jean to rare finds like Shafer, it'll be hard to make a bad choice.
